

Duster (Union College Bookstore) (Artifact 113)

Artifacts

Circa 1920 duster measures approximately 24 inches long. The handle is made of wood and the duster is composed of cotton cloth and string.

Provenance

This duster was found in the wall of the old bookstore in the original college administration building when it was torn down in the 1970s. The duster was most likely used between 1916 and 1925.
