

Addendum

2016-17 Bulletin

(Old SAT 2400 to New SAT 1600)

Because the redesigned (New) SAT 1600 is a different test than the pre-March 2016 (Old 2400) SAT, a numerical score on one test will not be strictly equivalent to the same numerical score on the other. SAT score information in the 2016-17 Bulletin refers to Old SAT 2400 scores. The purpose of this Addendum is to provide comparable scores for the New SAT 1600 test. For more information on how to compare scores and concordance tools and resources, please visit: www.collegeboard.org/satconcordance.

Note: The New SAT 1600 combines Reading and Writing into one Section called Evidence-Based Reading and Writing. Therefore, TEST scores (as opposed to Section scores) will be used for those areas to give the best equivalency as follows:

- Old SAT 2400 Critical Reading Section Score → New SAT 1600 Reading TEST Score
- Old SAT 2400 Writing Section Score → New SAT 1600 Writing and Language TEST Score
